

WE'RE HIRING!

A Paid Internship Will Soon Be Available With Top Dog

A word from some of our previous interns:

Jenny Lowman

Interning at Top Dog was an invaluable experience! Adam and Andrea are fantastic people. Working with dogs hands on allowed me to put my skills to use, and develop new ones. I got the inside scoop on running a business - which set me up for success in starting my very own dog training business!

Job Description

Our paid internship is a unique opportunity for you to continue your education without having to continue spending money! In fact you will be provided with free housing, and a monthly stipend of $500.

Our interns assist with training, monitoring our doggie daycare, walking dogs, and of course kennel duties like scooping poop, sweeping, and other stuff that's a bit less glamorous.

Who should apply?

We're looking for qualified individuals that have either spent a significant amount of time in the dog industry already, or have attended a certification program of some sort. Applicants that have graduated from Northstate Academy, Starmark Academy, National K9, T3, or the Tom Rose school will receive special consideration, however other applicants are still strongly encouraged to apply.

Hey guys, thanks for taking the time to check us out. Joining a company is like any relationship, and it's important that we feel like we're a good fit for each other. Please feel free to ask any questions about us in your application, or during the interview.

I'd describe myself as a flexible and understanding person. I value professionalism, honesty, and a strong effort. If you think you can bring that to the table, then I look forward to meeting you.

About Top Dog Texas

Top Dog has been in business for a little over 12 years now. Our company is located about twenty minutes South of Fort Worth and an hour from Dallas. Being a part of such a large metroplex means that we've got a pretty endless supply of dogs to train!

Here's a few logistics about us:

- 41% of our business is obedience training with family dogs.
- 24% of our business is behavioral modification with dogs suffering from aggression, anxiety, or fear based issues.
- 35% of our business is training service dogs.

Something important to note about us is that we're not in this business strictly because we love dogs, we're also very passionate about helping people. We want everyone to enjoy the relationship they have with their dog. If you have zero desire to work with people, we're probably not a good fit for you.

As passionate as we are about helping people with their dogs, we've also discovered that we find a ton of joy in helping out the next generation of dog trainers. The relationships that we've built with our former interns, shadow students, and employees have been truly meaningful, and something that we greatly treasure. Our goal is that our internships are mutually beneficial. We want you to walk away feeling like you got just as much out of it as you gave.

Please visit our website to apply, and tell us a bit more about yourself.
